SPOOKY SEASON

Lindsay Yamamura '22

It's spooky season here at SI,
So beware of the ghosts and ghouls that fly.
You thought you'd only be getting candy and sweets,
But unfortunately here at SI we've yet to see any treats.
The tricks that are appearing left and right
Will honestly give us all a very inconvenient fright.
From the library reconstruction during the week of midterms
To the rapid spreading of the common cold germs,

Associate Editor-In-Chief

To the long lunch line with no lunch waiting at the end,
To the seniors in horror with a thousand college apps to send.
As if the haunting couldn't get any worse,
The new schedule has cast another dreadful curse.
With breaks an awkward length of time,
We can't use the restroom that has too long of a line.
So stay alert and be ready for more tricks on their way,
Because it's not just on Halloween that these horrors prey.

THE SCHOOL SPIRITS

Aiden Wong '22

To you, I'll tell a tale of holy ghosts that stalk these haunted halls, decades almost.
O, long ago their names the deans did call.
Rebels, they were. Hiding in bathroom stalls.
But little did they know their prank would end in restless roaming. Cries, their souls do send!

Editor-In-Chief

For to this day, some hear their faint whispers,
"W-I-W-I-W-I-L-D C-A-C-A-C-A-T-S"
Brave souls have entered at night now and then,
haunted by rhinos and midnight milkmen.
Oh, Saint Ignatius, how we pray to thee.
The school spirits torment us. Hear our plea!
