

Students going into Latin 2/2h:

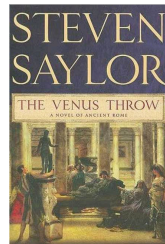

1. Watch movie: "Gladiator", starring Russell Crowe.
2. Review 1st, 2nd, and 3rd declension case endings and functions in preparation for grammar review quiz.

Students going into Latin 3/4 Prose:

1. Read about the six heroes at <http://mythweb.com/heroes/heroes.html>. Click on each face to read the story.
2. Review participles for grammar review quiz.

Students going into Latin 3h:

1. Read The Venus Throw by Steven Saylor.
2. Review participles and passive/deponent forms for grammar review quiz.

Students going into AP Latin:

By Monday, August 26th, please do the following:

1. Watch the following videos. Take notes as you watch the videos. You may use your notes for the assessment on August 26th.

The Roman Legion \(Links to an external site.\)

Caesar vs. Ariovistus \(58 B.C.\) \(Links to an external site.\)

Caesar in Britain \(55 B.C.\) \(Links to an external site.\)

Caesar in Britain: There and Back Again \(54 B.C.\) \(Links to an external site\)

The Battle of Alesia \(52 B.C.\) \(Links to an external site.\)

Vercingetorix \(52 to 50 B.C.\) \(Links to an external site.\)

2. Review your Latin 3h power notes. Grammar questions will appear on the summer assessment on August 26th.

Take handwritten reading/viewing notes on binder paper (mandatory). You will be permitted to refer to your notes during the reading/viewing portion of the quiz on the second day of class. The quiz will include grammar review questions. Notes are not permitted for the grammar section. All notes are due at the beginning of the second day of class (Monday, August 26th/Tuesday, August 27th).