

ST. IGNATIUS BOYS' BASKETBALL ANNOUNCEMENT

St. Ignatius College Preparatory is excited to announce Jason Greenfield as the next head varsity coach of the St. Ignatius Boys' Basketball Program. Jason most recently coached at the University of San Francisco where he served the Dons as the Director of Analytics for the men's basketball program. While at USF, Jason completed his Masters in Sport Management.

Jason played high school basketball for Milton Academy in Boston, MA. He also played college basketball at Trinity College, CT before joining the coaching staff of the Trinity Womens' Basketball team. Greenfield says, "I am looking forward to joining the St. Ignatius Community in my role as head basketball coach. I am honored to have been selected to lead such a storied program and can not wait to get on the court and start working with the players."

From 2016-2019, Jason was an assistant varsity basketball coach at University High School. During his three years at University, the Red Devils played in three Bay City League championships, two Norcal Finals and one state championship.

Jason worked professionally as a trader in the finance industry. He and his wife Lauren, and their three boys, Asher (13), Asa (10), and Ari (8), live in San Francisco.

About St. Ignatius College Prep

St. Ignatius College Preparatory is a Catholic, Jesuit school serving the San Francisco Bay Area since 1855. Through a rigorous and integrated program of academic, spiritual, and co-curricular activities, St. Ignatius challenges its students to lead lives of faith, integrity, and compassion. Students are enriched by a diverse and loving Christian community and are called to become life-long learners who develop their individual talents for the greater glory of God. With a commitment to intellectual excellence, leadership, service, and justice, we strive to be men and women for and with others, responding courageously to the opportunities and challenges of our time. Saint Ignatius College Preparatory is located in San Francisco, California, and is sponsored by the Society of Jesus. Saint Ignatius has a diverse, coed population of 1450 students. The school has a rich athletic tradition and enjoys tremendous administrative support for all of its programs.
