

ST. IGNATIUS COLLEGE PREPARATORY

Women's Varsity Soccer Coach

OPPORTUNITY

Lead one of the West Coast's top Women's High School Soccer Programs in one of the most competitive leagues in the State.

OVERVIEW

St. Ignatius College Preparatory, with a coed enrollment of 1500 students, is one of the top academic and athletic high schools on the West Coast. The Women's Soccer Program consistently competes for the WCAL title and advances to the CIF Section and State Playoffs. The program enjoys widespread support from the administration, program alumni, and parents. Additionally, SI practices and competes on their updated on-campus turf facility, with field lights recently installed for practices and games. St. Ignatius also owns and operates an off-campus multi-sport facility a short drive from campus called Fairmont Field, a facility embarking on a significant upgrade in the near future.

PRIMARY ROLE:

The St. Ignatius Athletic Department hosts a three level program in women's soccer and competes in the West Catholic Athletic League (WCAL). The head coach collaborates with the Assistant Principal and Athletic Director to recruit, hire and supervise 5 assistant coaches. The high school soccer season runs from November - February, with section and state playoffs finishing up in March. The head coach schedules all contacts and must be well versed in WCAL, CCS, and CIF rules and regulations (AD Staff will assist with these items). The head coach will work with an Associate AD and Strength Coach and implement a year-round performance plan.

STATUS: Non-exempt, part time staff member
